

Look Good Feel Better, Los Alamos

Look Good...Feel Better is a wonderful program designed to help female cancer patients deal with appearance-related side effects of cancer and treatments. In a supportive, safe and companionable group sessions, attendees learn about skincare, make-up, wigs and head coverings.

These classes are given by licensed estheticians and cosmetologists who give their time and their skills to help women through their cancer journey. Everyone goes home with a free kit of beauty products.
